

Cornell Atkinson Topical Lunch:

Title: Climate Change Policy Engagement in D.C.

Speaker: Jason Cole (Associate Vice President, University Relations)

Organizers: Patrick Beary (Cornell Atkinson), Natalie Mahowald (Earth & Atmospheric Sciences)
Co-chairs, Cornell Atkinson's Reducing Climate Risk Working Group

Date: Monday, October 28th, 2019; 12:00 – 1:00 PM

Location: 300 Rice Hall

Abstract: Cornell Atkinson and the Division of University Relations invite you to a lunch discussion about U.S. public policy related to climate change. We are seeking collaborations with faculty to increase our engagement, impact, and visibility in Washington, D.C.

We welcome Jason Cole, Associate Vice President for University Relations, to join a discussion of our proposed strategy, recent successes, and near-term plans to engage in D.C. on climate related policy issues. We will also invite faculty members to join a cohort interested in engaging more regularly on federal policy issues.
